

Pathology Myths and Misconceptions Webinar for National Pathology Week 2024

4 November 2024, 18:00 to 20:00 GMT

Programme

| Time | Speaker | Session/ myth title |
|-------|--|---|
| 18:00 | Dr Suzy Lishman CBE President, Association of Clinical Pathologists | Welcome to National Pathology Week and our Myths and Misconceptions event |
| 18:10 | Dr Matthew Clarke, NIHR Clinical Lecturer - ST5 Diagnostic Neuropathology | Pathology is all about dead bodies |
| 18:20 | Professor Joanne Edwards Professor of Translational Cancer Pathology and Principal Investigator | Cancers are all caused by genes, so you can't change your risk |
| 18:30 | Dr Amy Belfield Infectious Diseases and Microbiology SpR | Taking antibiotics won't cause any harm |
| 18:40 | Mrs Emma Holt NHS STP Trainee Clinical Scientist in Cancer Genomics Ms Rosemary Felix NHS STP Trainee Clinical Scientist in Cancer Genomics | Haematology is all about counting blood cells |

| | | |
|-------|---|--|
| 18:50 | Dr Charles Van Heyningen Retired Consultant Chemical Pathologist | A normal blood test means you're healthy |
| 19:00 | Professor Clare Rusbridge FRCVS Professor in Veterinary Neurology | Cute dogs make great pets |
| 19:10 | Dr Sarah Wheeldon ST7 haematology registrar | Technology means blood transfusions are a thing of the past |
| 19:20 | Dr Daniel Field Academic Histopathology Trainee | Artificial intelligence (AI) will replace pathologists |
| 19:30 | Dr Sarah Pitt Biomedical Scientist and Senior Lecturer | Pathologists don't need good communication skills |
| 19:40 | Dr Suzy Lishman | Q&A/panel discussion |
| 19:55 | Dr Suzy Lishman | Summing up and thanks |
| 20:00 | Close | |